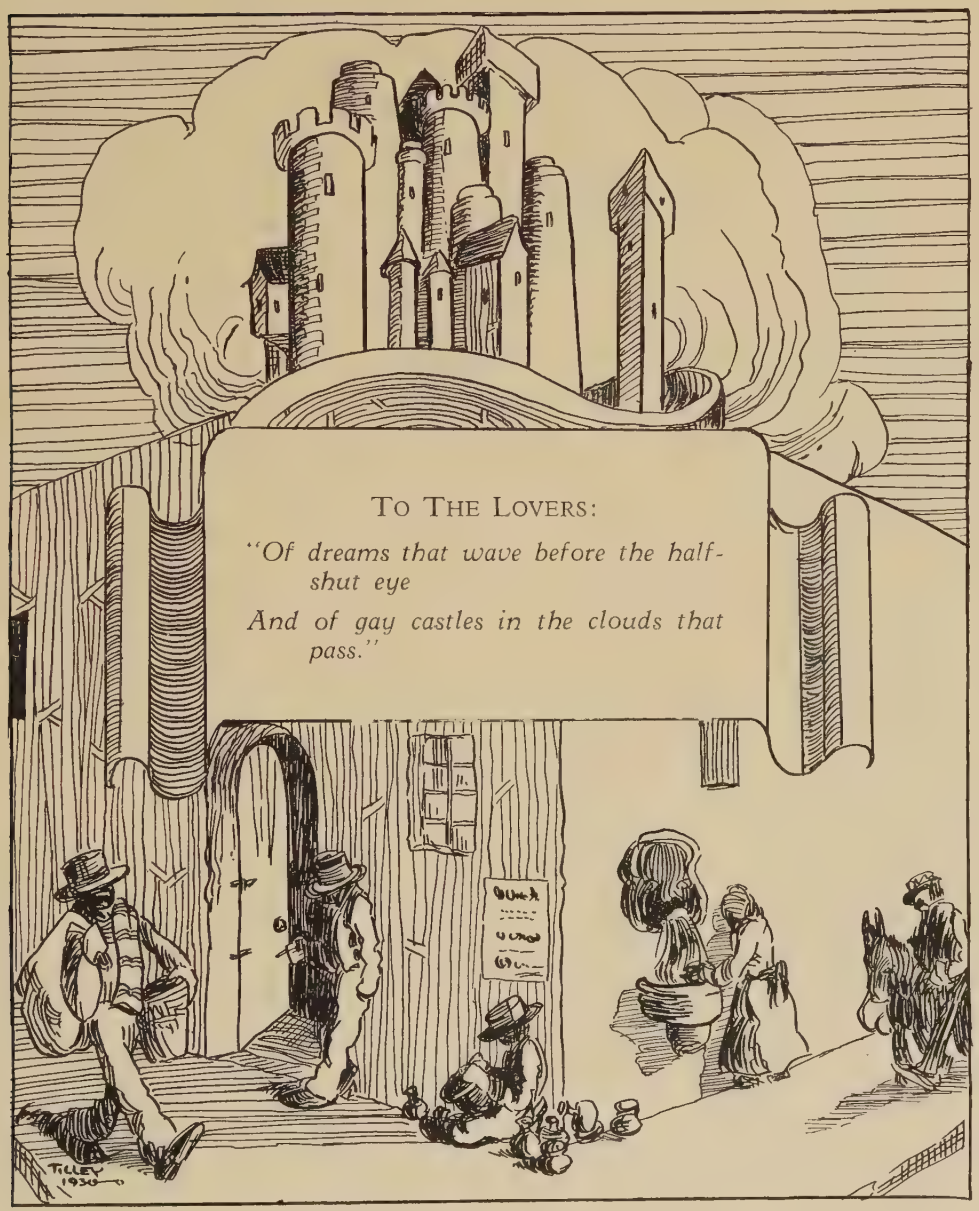
In Memoriam

MISS NETTIE M. SNOOK

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said as they saw its beauty:
"It shall never know decay,
Great is thy skill, O builder;
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts;
None knew of her wonderous plan,
For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumbled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust,
But the temple the teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll;
For that beautiful unseen temple
Is a child's immortal soul.



TO THE LOVERS:
"Of dreams that wave before the half-shut eye
And of gay castles in the clouds that pass."

HEREIN HAVE WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1930, REVEALED SOMETHING OF OUR PAST ACCOMPLISHMENTS, OUR PRESENT SELVES, AND OUR FUTURE "CASTLES IN SPAIN"—NOT THE GOSSAMER VISIONS SO EASILY DISPELLED BY THE CONSCIOUSNESS FOLLOWING A DREAM, BUT THE ASSEMBLAGE OF ALL OUR AMBITIONS IN STRUCTURES WORTHY OF SHELTERING OUR HIGHEST IDEALS.

My dream castle stirred gently and presented a senior—well-prepared—willing to work—an artist.

Again, it moved and there appeared the selfsame senior—courteous, considerable, kind.

Finally from another angle of my castle he appeared possessed by a mighty conviction to live worthily, and I was happy.

Oh Central Hi we cry aloud, Were all for Central Hi, With Grandioso
but don't drag thoughts like milestones backward turn, When on this school we gaze; Our one accord our song we raise, To dear old Central Hi, Our grip grows strong Bold rings our song When these loud cheers we raise Here's loyal trust, our love and faith, Ring clear with chorus high Here's Vic-to-ry and deeds of fame We give you all our praise fame and praise-here's loyal-ty Here's all to Central Hi

SENIORS

MY DREAM CASTLE FOR THE SENIORS

That His HER be one to draw out the finest of manhood;

That Her HIM be the soul of honor, in which her spirit finds refuge;

That Their HOME be to their children and those needing them a viritable Castle of Dreams.

—GRACE K. MCCLURG

Senior Class History

FOUR years ago a class of green freshmen, hugging its books tightly, entered Central through the back door. Some older classmen laughed at its timidity, but these newcomers were already dreaming and building castles in the air. Immediately it set about to build the foundations for these castles, and each member took up his duty with a will. For the first year Fred Horn was elected president; Janet Sealts, vice president; Rhea Rohn, secretary; and Francis Failor, treasurer; while Bob Blue and Jack Raudabaugh were chosen as the first Fresh Student Council representatives. During this first year, the class entered into most of the activities open for it, with varied degrees of determination. Bob Blue was elected cheer-leader, and Jane Matthews played the lead in the annual Masqueraders' play "The Touchdown," both outstanding honors for freshmen.

The second year came around and the class was now ready to build the first floor upon the foundation which had been built before. This time the officers were chosen very thoughtfully and with great dignity. As a result, four boys were elected: Eldon Basinger, Henry White, Bob Blue, and Andrew Gruber. For the Student Council, Mona Vittur, Alice Hilty, Bob Blue, and Richard Black were named. The building went on, and it soon became time for the second story of the castle.

Very gravely the responsibilities of upperclassmen were assumed. The officers for the third year were Don Bowlus, Mona Vittur, Alice Hilty, and Florence White. Florence White and Bob Case were selected to aid the same four that had been chosen the preceding year for the Council.

During the Junior year the class was well represented in athletics, debate, dramatics, scholarship, music, and journalism. The class play, "Vanity," was so well presented by the cast that it was said by many people to be the best play given at Central, and the Juniors felt quite satisfied. Near the close of this active year, the class honored the seniors with the "Hop" which was a recognized success.

The task was almost finished and the roof alone remained to be built—but how important is that roof! Those chosen to lead the class for the last time were John Crawford, Mona Vittur, Alice Hilty, and Florence White. The same Student Council members were again chosen with the addition of Fred Horn, John Crawford, and Henry White.

The class kept the honor of the senior class unbesmirched by saving the title of first place in the field meet from the grasping hands of the other classes.

"Lilies of the Field" was chosen as the annual senior play and it was presented very ably by the cast. The senior Dinner-Dance, held at Shawnee Country Club, the senior Tea, and commencement, closed the festivities of the year as one class.

In looking back over the four years, perhaps there is a great deal of happiness and perhaps a bit of sorrow because the foundation was not built as soundly as it might have been. But this all vanishes when we realize that the building of these air castles does not finish everything—it does not put the roof on the castle; instead, the whole structure is only a foundation for a more stable, more realistic, and more significant castle that is to be built upon it and is to be our lasting home.

We are now allowed for the last time to express our appreciation of the work done by the supervisors, the architects of our castles. If it had not been for them, our castles would have had no beauty nor plan, and possibly would have fallen down about us. Can we say more?

Junior Class History

IN September, 1929, the class of 1931 again entered the portals of Central High school. This time, however, it was with a different feeling than in previous years, for we had at last gained the distinction of upper-classmen.

As the pilots for our third year we chose Eugene Broxon, president; Barbara Siferd, vice president; Emerson Beery, secretary; Margaret Grouver, treasurer. We were represented on the Student Council by Emerson Beery, Eugene Broxon, Laurence Larsen, Zoe Emily Schnabel, Barbara Siferd, and Richard Taylor.

We took an active part in athletics, journalism, and all extra-curricular activities. Our dramatic venture was "Man or Mouse" which was directed by Mrs. Rhonemus. The cast included Charles Barnd, Alice Custer, John Dimond, William Haneke, John Reuthe, Ruth Rohrbacher, Jack Saunders, Gordon Shaw, Barbara Siferd, Sam Spitler, Marguerite Stevens, Dick Taylor, Jo White, and Eleanor Wise. Our social success was the Junior Hop which we gave in honor of the departing seniors. Our class was represented in scholarship by Loretta Alspach, Roberta Early, William Haneke, Laurence Larsen, Raymond Mikesell, Zoe Emily Schnabel, Janet Sealts, Barbara Siferd, Jo Smith, Mary Louise Steiner, Lela Mae Thomas, and Margaret Webb.

The class of '31 has only one more year in which to shape its high school career, but with such a fine record behind it, we may be assured that it will be a successful senior class.

Sophomore Class History

WITH mamma's warnings, pigtails, and overshoes, the class of '32 entered the big study hall of Central High in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight

"Leonard Faurot, stand up," they called, and, in accordance with the stern command, Leonard arose. "You are our Freshman president," they announced.

"Thank you," replied Leonard, but not in a tone to indicate he understood the honor conferred upon him.

"Bill Cass, Mable Hinton, Lillian Hunter," bellowed the class, "You are vice president, secretary, and treasurer. Now all of you go down to the Adon Studio and hunt the birdie."

So, feeling its duty done, the class of '32 tried with little success to make itself unseen, unheard, unknown. But it showed up in all sorts of odd places, ––dramatics, debates, honor rolls, Mirror staffs, athletics, and other such activities.

This year the class has pushed onward and upward in all those activieies to so great an extent that it has grown pardonably conceited. It expects soon to win field meets, have all the leads in plays, be president of all the clubs, and edit entirely both the Weekly and Annual.

"It won't be long then, either," modestly admits that class of classes—'32.

Now you see it's this way: "She—

FRESHMEN

Your Castle 1933! May you build it strong and true with something earned and something lost, with something received and also given. It's Today that you are living, not Yesterday. Live Today so splendedly that when Tomorrow, your graduation, comes, it may slip into the Past, a dream come true.

Freshman History

ALTHOUGH a freshman class rarely accomplishes much in the course of a year, we feel that we have done as much as could be expected of so young a class.

The officers this year are: president, Franklin Young; vice president, Bruce Waggoner; secretary, Mary Cutter; treasurer, Martha Jackson.

Several students have been on the Honor Roll almost every time. They are Martha Jackson, Franklin Young, Coyita Armstrong, Billy Barnd, Helen Anne Gooding, Merton Sealts, Kent Leach, Betty Kelchner, and Bettye Jane Cox.

Although we were fifth in the field meet, we have several athletes. They are: Franklin Young, James Brentlinger, Norma Lindeman, Rhea Kimp, and Helen Noonan.

Among the the freshmen prominent in dramatics are Martha Jackson, Lamar Roof, Gail Smith, Merton Sealts, Virginia Swisher, Selma Mervis, Margaret Leech, Betty Kelchner, Dorothy Day, John Mitchill, and George Mitchell.

For student council we elected Tom Taylor and Coit Black.

Cheerleaders are Coit Black and Don Zuber.

Much credit is due Miss Reed, who led us through a very successful year.

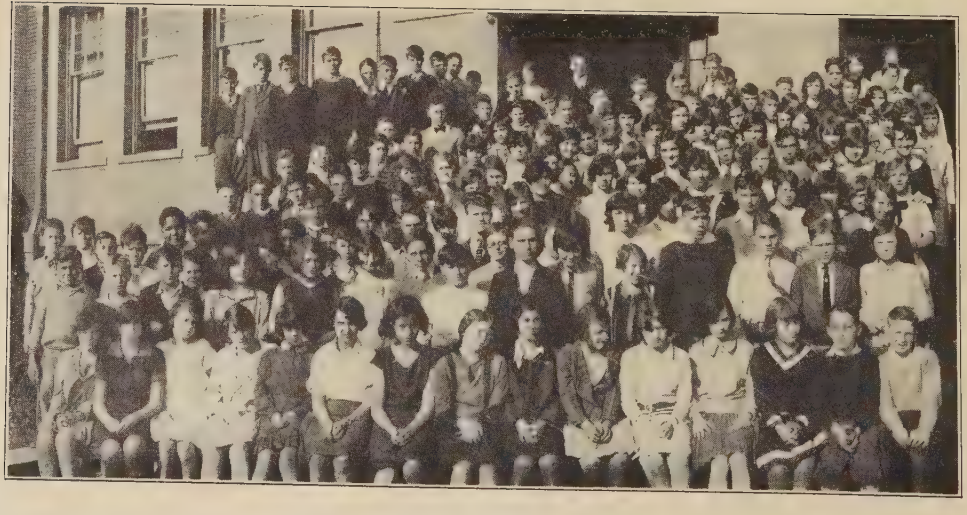
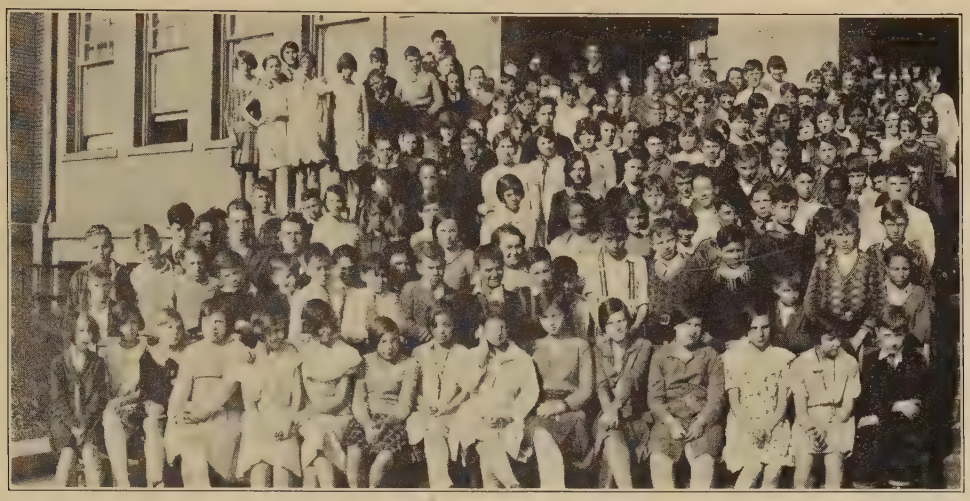
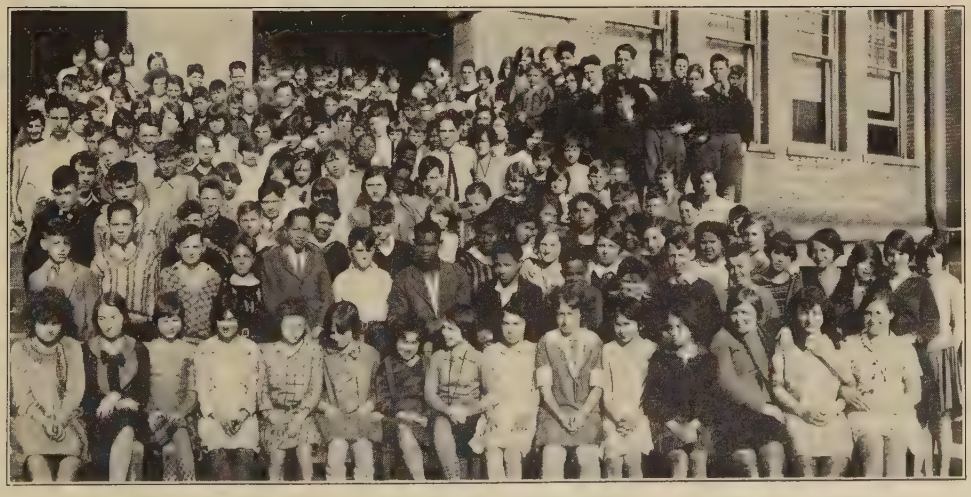
Eighth Grade





Seventh Grade



Junior High History

MUCH progress has been made in Junior High School this year, due mainly to the fact that it has linked its interests with those of the Senior High School.

Under the guidance of Mr. C. C. Romaker, assistant principal, Miss Marie Muelbauer and Miss Edna McPheron, supervisors, the seventh and eighth grade pupils have advanced materially in the outside activities as well as building higher their academic foundation.

As was the custom, Junior High elected officers for both seventh and eighth grades. The seventh grade officers were: president, Jack Schoonover; vice president, Betty Rose Kolter; secretary, Betty Watson; and treasurer, Dorothy Krueger. The eighth grade president was Paul Strange; vice president. Mary McKee; secretary, William Guyton; and treasurer, Elizabeth Crawford.

For the first time in the history of Junior High a student was selected from each grade to represent it in the Senior High stundent council. Donald Creviston from the seventh grade and William Vincent from the eighth grade, the latter being in charge of the hall duty.

One of the outstanding events of the year was the operetta "Sunbonnet Girl" presented by the pupils on December 4, 1929, in the auditorium. The leading roles were taken by Mary David and James Miller. Miss Jeannette Stuart supervised the dramatics, Miss Mable Williams directed the music, and Miss Lyda Buchanan had charge of the dances. The English department offered a play "The Birds' Christmas Carol" under the supervision of Miss Lenore Thomas and Miss Frances Meade. Both of these productions were a great success.

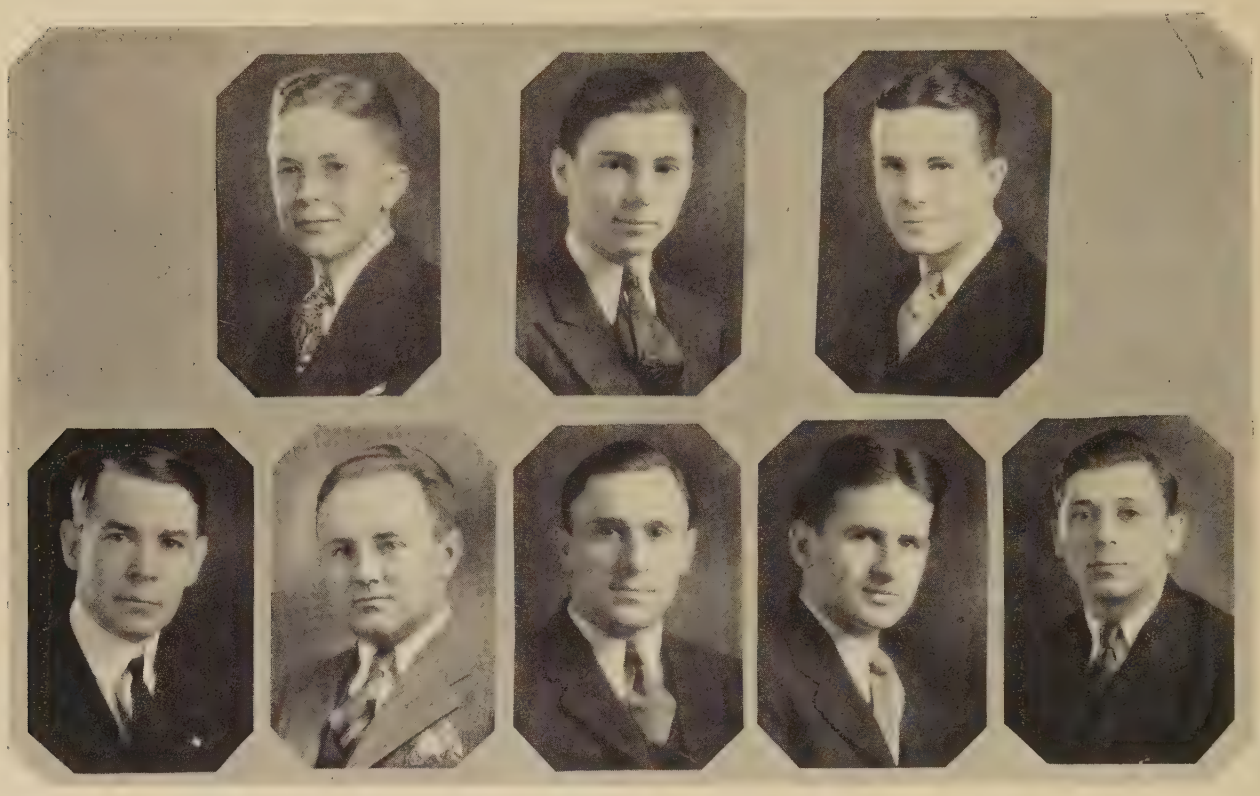
These classes were very active in sports. On field day, Junior High climbed to second place, allowing only the seniors to surpass them.

The gym exhibition supervised by Miss Lyda Buchanan and Mr. C. C. Steward was a big success and showed promise of excellent work when these pupils are members of Senior High.

A Who's Who contest was held in which several students received more than one position.

Three members of Junior High were prominent on the Mirror staff: Nancy Hover, news editor; Mary Ruth Mulchay, business manager; and William Guyton, assistant business manager.

ATHLETICS



OFFICIAL ATHLETIC BOARD

LEACH BLUE HAUENSTEIN BROXON UMBREIT DIMOND SCHEUERMAN STEWARD

Athletic Association

THE Athletic Association was organized in 1922 under the supervision of Mr. E. A. Hauenstein. The purpose of the association is to promote a keener interest and to determine the policies of athletic activities in the school.

The association has just completed a successful year along various lines. Tickets were sold for the Armistice Day program featuring Sergeant York, a hero of the world war. Further, field day events were planned to determine class supremacy. Cheer leaders were also elected to lead the "yells" at the games.

As a special concession to members of the Athletic Association, season tickets were sold at a reduced rate.

Alice Hilty, Max Eysenbach, Florence White, and Rebecca Jane Taylor were on the committee for the football and basketball decorations.

"C" Association

THE "C" association was organized in 1922 under the supervision of Coach R. J. Theibert as an honorary club composed of students who have obtained the coveted "C" in any sport.

The purpose of the club is to encourage student participation and to promote cleaner sportsmanship in all athletics.

An interesting feature of the club this year was Dad's and Mother's Day at the Kiser football game and at the Portsmouth basketball game. It also welcomed visiting teams and sponsored rally days and pep meetings.

During the past year the officers of the club were: Alva Bowman, president; Don Bowlus, vice president; Fred Holland, secretary and treasurer; and Mr. E. A. Hauenstein was faculty supervisor. Don Bowlus, Cleatus Clark, Alva Bowman, and Richard Zay were on the committee for the football games, while Fred Steiner, Victor Stevens, James Bessire, and Fred Holland were on the committee for the basketball games.

Cheerleaders

MOX—The head cheerleader who so readily and cheerfully led our rooters. He'll be at Central next year.

COIT—He put pep into the cheering at crucial moments. We'll expect things from him for three years more.

ZUBER—Don, the follower as well as enthusiastic cheerleader of Central's athletics. He also is only a freshman.

BOBBIE—The willing and smiling little lady who so aptly filled the head cheerleaders position last year and this. She will be at Central next year too.

MAXINE—Whose smiling personality and enthusiastic manner greatly enhanced our cheers. Alas! a senior.

PEG—The spirited enthuser of not a few out of town as well as city games. Another senior! Woe unspeakable!

LEMERT—End

Ed's playing at the wing position became a real value to the defense. He gained a reputation as a hard tackler. His graduation leaves a wide gap to be filled.

TOLFORD—End

Phil's playing was commendable. He was a hard man to get around and he could take plenty of punishment. There will be a place on the team for him next year.

CAJACOBS—Tackle and End

Playing two positions is not very easy but Gene filled both the tackle and end position with grit and fight, and he will be back next year.

RENTZ—Fullback

Freddy broke into the regular line-up in the middle of the season and soon proved himself a valuable asset to the team. He is a Senior and his position will be a hard one to fill.

WELDY—Captain and Guard

The only veteran from last year, Bill became the man about whom the team was built. His splendid showing in every game gave him the reputation of a first class player. The team will miss him next year.

HUTCHINSON—Center

"Hutch" was a dependable pivot man and a real fighter. He has been out for football for four years and well earned the coveted "C." We shall miss him next year.

EMERSON—Fullback

Ed, playing his first year on the varsity, showed his power and speed when he broke through the opposing line for necessary gains. He will strengthen our team next year.

DIMOND—End

Johnny is a newcomer to Central this year and although he had never participated in football before, he soon became a real help to the team. He will be with us again next year and we expect great things from him.

TAYLOR—Halfback

Due to his good broken-field running, Dick frequently made much needed gains. He should do great things on the team next year.

PAPE—Halfback

Pape was a real runner and good man on the defense. He could be depended upon to make gains and to stop other teams. He has another year with the team.

YOUNG—Center

Although he was only a Freshman and had had no football before, Frankie took his position at center and handled it like a veteran. We wish him the best of luck in his three more years of fighting for the Red and Green.

STEPHENS—Guard

This was "Vic's" first year of varsity football and his playing, although not spectacular, was steady. He stopped line plunges with skill and opened up holes for the backs. He is a Junior.

CURRENT—Right Tackle

Because of Wayne's size and ability, few gains were made through right tackle. He also place-kicked and will be a valuable man to lose.

GREEN—Tackle

Jimmy, our big boy of the team, made a name for himself as a hard tackler and blocker. He was a constant threat to the backs of the other teams. He is a Junior and will be back next year.

BRENTLINGER—Half

Although not a regular until mid-season, "Brent" became a blocker and tackler of no mean ability. He is a Freshman and has three years of football ahead of him.

IRWIN—Quarterback

The steady work of Ross was the mainstay of the team. He was a consistent ground gainer and a heavy field general. Much is expected of him next year.

HOOKS—Halfback

Hooks, one of the fastest open field runners, was always a danger to the opposing team. He will be back next year.

STEINER—Guard

Fred was a real fighter and had determination to do things. He is a Senior and will not be back next year.

GUNTHER—Tackle

A steady plugger, Al could be depended upon to stop the advance of the opposing team. We'll expect him back with the veterans next year.

MOTTER—Half
DROESCH—End

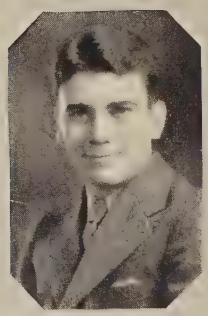
Motter and Droesch sustained the two major injuries of the year. Early in the season, Droesch received a broken collarbone which put him out for the rest of the season. Motter, a regular on the second team, broke his leg in the Shawnee game. Both of these warriors well deserve their letters for their sacrifice.



Thanksgiving Football Game

IN the first quarter, South, after winning the toss-up, kicked off to Central, and Emerson carried the ball to the twenty yard line. Central's backs were unable to gain so Irwin punted to his own thirty yard line. After Wallick made several line plunges, Vogelgesang punted to Central's fifteen yard line and where Irwin lost five and Brentlinger, on a line play, lost five more. Irwin then punted to South's forty-one yard line and the rest of the period was a see-saw contest with the ball in Central's terriory most of the time.

In the opening of the second quarter, South kicked and Central, unable to make any headway, returned the ball at a loss. As neither team were able to make a first down, a punting dual ensued with Irwin of Central and Vogelgesand of South exchanging punts for the rest of the period.

As the third quarter opened, South, after a great attempt, gained courage and Vogelgesang made fifteen yards off tackle for the first down of the game. As South was unable to gain further, Vogelgesang punted to Central's thirty yard line and Irwin returned the ball to South's thirty-five yard line. Wallick again tried the line and South, failing to gain, punted on the fourth down to Central's forty-five yard line where Central was penalized twenty yards for clipping. This put the ball on Central's nineteen yard line where Irwin punted to his own thirty-seven yard line, Current downing the ball, and Vogelgesang passed to Sprague who was downed on Central's twelve yard line by Green, stellar tackle. Wallick made three yards through a line play and South was penalized for holding, putting the ball on Central's twenty-eight yard line. On the next play Vogelgesang went for a touchdown, making the score 7 to 0 as the quarter ended.

In the last half the ball was worked back and forth upon the field with Irwin and Rentz bearing the attack for Central, and Stewart and Vogelgesang carrying the oval for South. Both teams used a passing attack late in the game, but South had piled up the necessary points to clinch the game and city title.

THE team, built up around one veteran left from the preceding year, entered the usual first game with Bluffton on September 21. The football season was officially opened by Professor Offenhauer here, after which the old rivalry between the schools was fought out. The Bluffton eleven defeated us by a score of 31 to 0 in a rather slow game.

On September 28, after a week of hard scrimmage, the Dragons went to Middletown to play the well-known Middletown eleven. Here it seemed that the veteran running and passing attack was too much for us, and we came home with a score of 33 to 0 against us.

Not dismayed by these two defeats, on October 15 the Dragons welcomed the strong Hamilton team to the field and fought out the first half on even terms. In the last half, however, the invaders sent their fleet backfield in and by the end of the game, we found that we had lost again 22 to 0.

For our next game we went to visit Springfield and we left it on the short end of the score, 13 to 0. This game was stubbornly fought and it was only by hard playing that these two touchdowns were secured.

On October 19, the Dragons met Dayton Kiser, a new opponent in Central's relations. This day was dedicated as Dad's and Mother's Day. The Kiser team had a crashing line and aerial attack, and, although Central threatened many times to score, it lacked the necessary punch to put the ball over. However, the Dayton crew put it over twice and took home with them a score of 13 to 0.

Many thrills awaited our team when they went to Defiance on October 26. This was the hardest fought game so far and the two teams were continually see-sawing up and down the field. In the last half, however, by taking advantage of a blocked kick and a costly fumble, the Defiance eleven managed to cross the goal twice, and again we were sent home on the short end of the score, 12 to 0.

Fostoria paid us a visit on November 2, and brought a scrappy, light, and shifty team along. They pulled an apparent surprise attack and defeated the Dragons in a close game, 7 to 0.

Making the longest trip of the season on November 9, the Central team went to Maywood, Illinois, to meet the team of our former football mentor, Thiebert. Although out-run and out-played, we were not out-witted for it was here that the only points of the season were made when a Proviso kick was blocked behind their line by CaJacobs, giving us a safety. The final score was 19 to 2.

On November 16, Central was visited by one of the strongest teams that Findlay has ever produced. Having lost only one game, the Blue and Gold team came here with the intention of increasing the string of victories. Living up to their pre-game estimation, they soundly trounced he Dragons in a close game, 12 to 0.

In the last two weeks before the South tilt, the Dragons were sent through a new routine of plays and trick formations. Thanksgiving Day proved to be a bitterly cold and miserable day for the field was covered with snow. The game, however, was one of the cleanest and most interesting that has ever been fought out between the two schools. For a while it seemed that it was going to end with another scoreless tie, but in the second half, South scored a touchdown on a long, sweeping end run which gave them the victory with a score of 7 to 0.

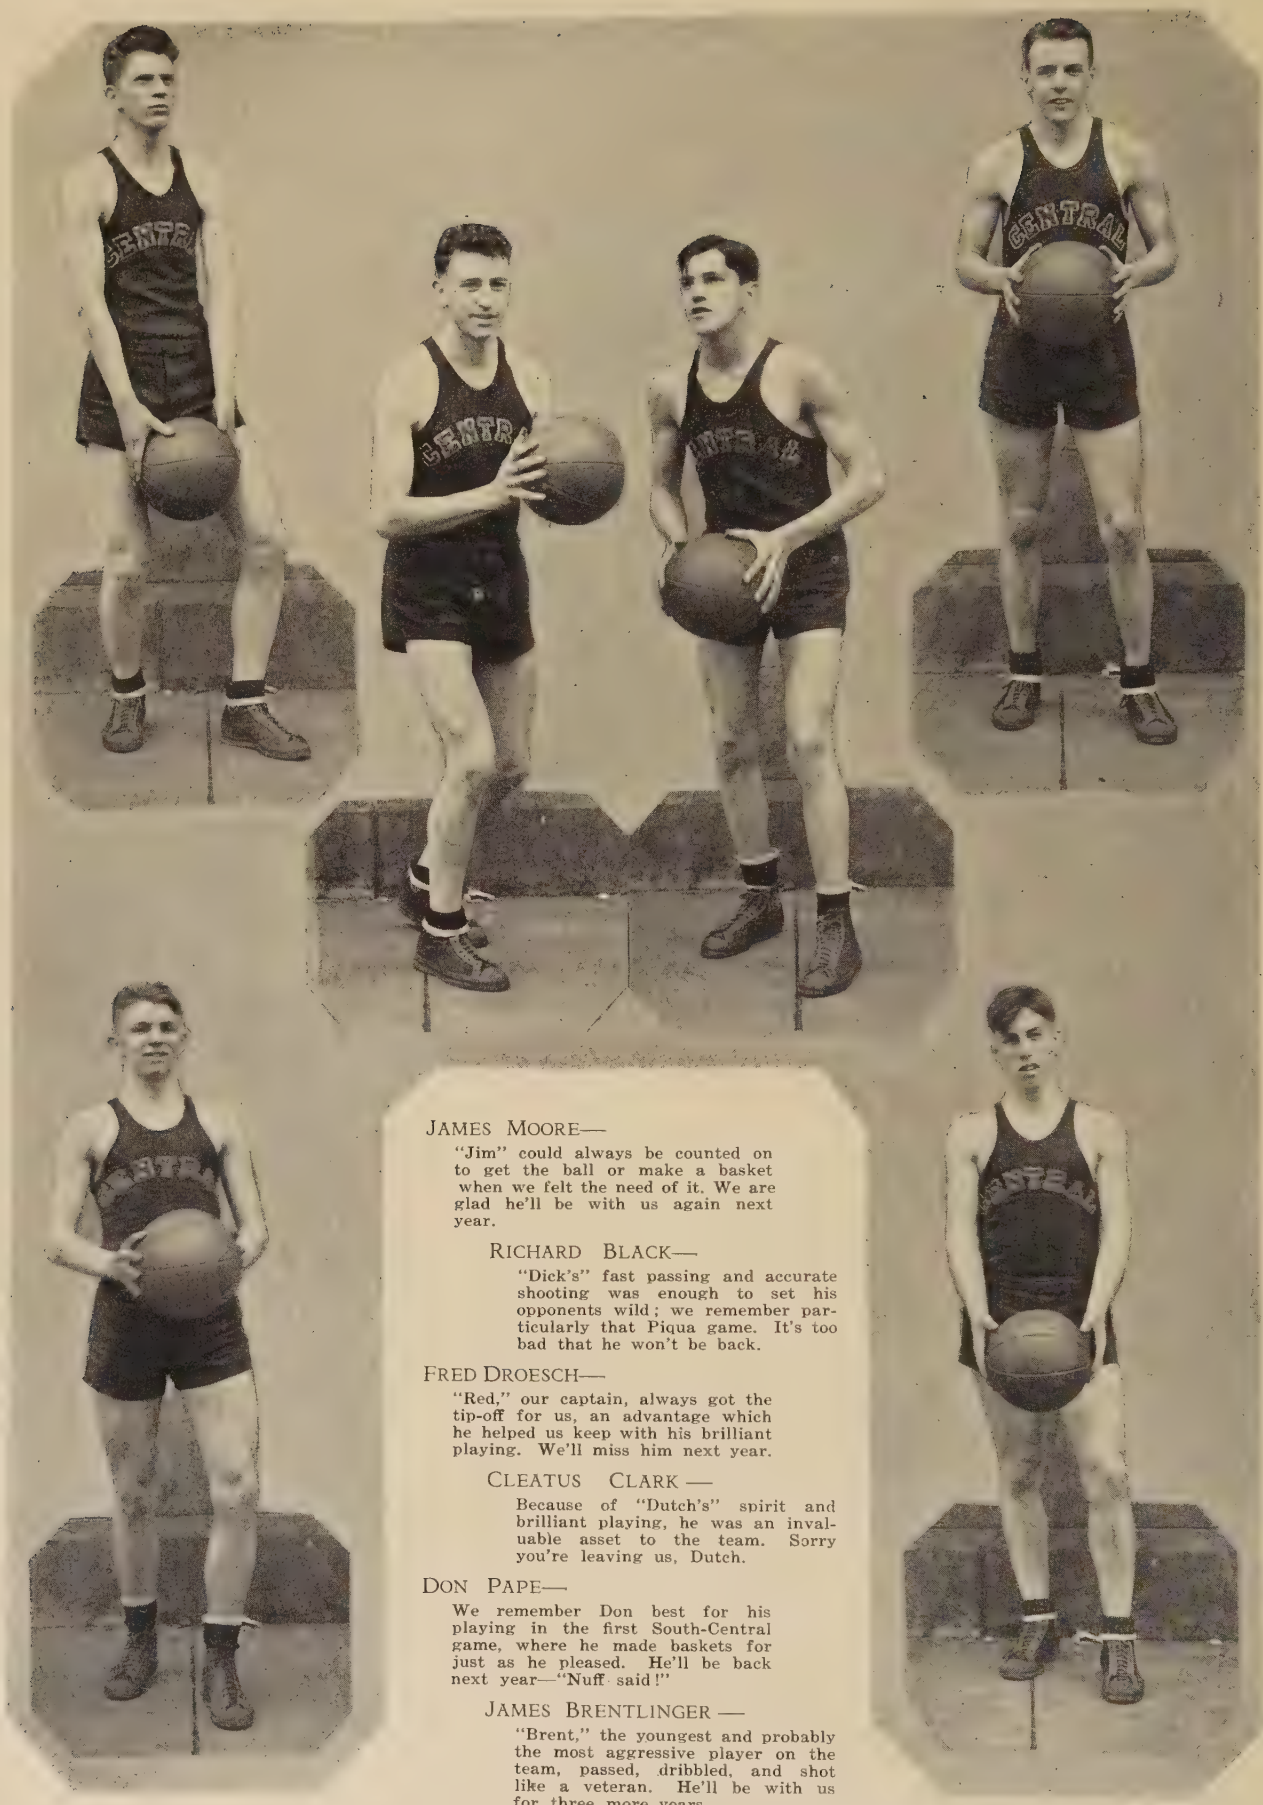
BASKETBALL



JAMES MOORE—

"Jim" could always be counted on to get the ball or make a basket when we felt the need of it. We are glad he'll be with us again next year.

RICHARD BLACK—

"Dick's" fast passing and accurate shooting was enough to set his opponents wild; we remember particularly that Piqua game. It's too bad that he won't be back.

FRED DROESCH—

"Red," our captain, always got the tip-off for us, an advantage which he helped us keep with his brilliant playing. We'll miss him next year.

CLEATUS CLARK —

Because of "Dutch's" spirit and brilliant playing, he was an invaluable asset to the team. Sorry you're leaving us, Dutch.

DON PAPE—

We remember Don best for his playing in the first South-Central game, where he made baskets for just as he pleased. He'll be back next year—"Nuff said!"

JAMES BRENTLINGER —

"Brent," the youngest and probably the most aggressive player on the team, passed, dribbled, and shot like a veteran. He'll be with us for three more years.

The 1930 Basketball Squad

CENTRAL began her basketball season at home with a winning game over Lafayette, 42-11. Her first game, a victory, served as an impetus for succeeding games. However, Vaughnsville was able in the next game to humble Central by the small margin of 18-17. Her fighting spirit still up, the Red and Green visited Bluffton, fought furiously and brought home the victory, 21-15. Our next encounter was with Dola and in this game the 22-19 score was due mostly to the excellent guarding of Moore and Brentlinger. The next game with Harding of Marion, our ancient rival, was valiantly fought and won by 27-16.

Following our run of victory, defeat came at Bowling Green in the first game of the league; also, the game with Findlay was a loss of 45-27. Two defeats acted as a spur to the boys and in the second league game with Bowling Green, we conquered 25-20. Probably the fastest team of the season which had to be met was Portsmouth, but we won 20-18. The third league game was played at Fostoria before a densely packed gym and though fighting an excellent team, we got the "breaks" of the game which closed with a score of 31-22.

Great interest was manifested on January 24 when we were to meet Lima South to play the first of the series of games with the Tigers. South's team was neither able to find holes in our defense nor to block our offense, so we came home with elation over a victory of 23-17.

A new brand of basketball was shown us by Dayton Roosevelt which caused us to lose 23-24. But after our third defeat of the season the reserves added another league victory over Defiance, 44-19. A hectic struggle at Piqua gave us a 26-22 victory; Napoleon was defeated on our floor 36-21. The second game with South was the final one in the series and resulted in a count of 28-25 in our favor; the team visited Defiance next and again took another league game 28-13.

For the last league game of the season, Fostoria played on the Lima floor. The end of the season was as the beginning—a victory for Central.

The District Tourney

We drew St. Rose, of Lima, in the district tourney at South and though fighting bravely, the Red and Green Dragons were humbled in a score of 38-20.

Faculty-Varsity Game

The faculty, with Umbreit and Steward, was too much for Central's varsity and the Dragons were defeated by the veterans 31-26.

As we look back over the year, we are proud of the team which has represented Central. It has played a clean game and the players have shown themselves to be clean sports. Next year we shall regret the loss of Droesch, Black, and Clark, but with the promising material on hand, Coach Scheurman hopes to be able to fill their places. Fifteen victories to five defeats was a good average this year and we hope for as splendid a team next year.

Track 1929

THERE were only three letter-men in track who returned to Central in 1929. Out of the students who responded to Coach W. E. Umbreit's call for try-outs, a satisfactory track squad was organized.

Dale Varner was elected captain. He deserved this honor because he had won his letter in track three years previously. The consistent winners this season were Varner in the shot and discus, Ray Brown in the shot and dashes, Gene Broxon in the dashes and broad-jump, Lewis Cook in the mile, and Leroy Geiger in the 440.

In the first meet of the season our "scanty clads" defeated Wapakoneta by a score of 75⅓ to 45⅔. Central placed first in eight out of thirteen events.

Central lost the next meet to South 50½ to 71½, and in the triangular meet which followed, the scores were: South, 58 1/3; Central, 32 1/3; and Findlay, 27 1/3.

Although five of the best track men were at the Defiance Relays, the remaining Centralites managed to hold Bluffton to a score of 60 to 66. We won six out of the thirteen events. In the Defiance Relays, Varner and Brown placed in the weight events and brought us four points.

Baseball 1929

THE third year with baseball as a varsity sport resulted in our winning for the second time the district championship. Another indicator of the success of this season of baseball is that we won nine games, tied one, and lost five.

Under Mr. Steward's supervision, a hard working team was developed. George Leist was captain and star pitcher. He pitched five winning games including the three at the district tournament. Schlott, Koch, and Lyle led in batting averages of .444, 422, and .390 respectively.

Our victories included: Cridersville, 16 to 7; Gomer, 21 to 12; Kenton, 7 to 6 and 12 to 5; Elida, 17 to 3; South, 16 to 6. District Tournament: Paulding, 15 to 7; Wauseon, 7 to 3; and Toledo Waite, 3 to 1. One game was a tie, Lafayette, 1 to 1. We were defeated by Delphos, 11 to 9 and 4 to 3; South, 7 to 6. State Tournament: Columbus Central, 1 to 0.

This was the last year for nine lettermen in baseball: Leist, Rise, Koch, Renner, Schlott, Chiles, Faurot, McKee, and Lyle. Three will be back with us next year: Black, Bowlus, and Hutchinson.

Tennis 1929

THE tennis team which represented Central in the spring of 1929 met with only partial success. Bad weather was detrimental to this, the third of Central's tennis teams. Only four matches were played.

Our team was again coached by Mr. H. W. Scheuerman who worked with them every night out at the college courts. Gene Zuber and George Wood, prominent on last year's team, were the most active players and the backbone of the 1929 team.

The district meet was at Toledo. Wood lost in the singles, but he and Zuber were not beaten in the doubles. The tournament had to be closed before the finish because of rain, and all surviving players were entered in the state tournament at Columbus. There we were defeated at the opening of the meet.

Two dual matches were played with Celina and Wapakoneta. Both of these matches were won by Central's opponents, 3 to 2.

In the dual meets, Robert Motter, Jerry Umbaugh, and Walter Beery also took part. Robert Motter is the only one of the team remaining at Central to form next year's team.

GIRLS'
ATHLETICS

Girls' Athletic Association

THE Girls' Athletic Association came into existence in the fall of 1925 through the efforts of Mrs. White, who was the girls' physical director during that year. The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in girls' athletics and to encourage more girls to participate in games for fun rather than for honor.

Interest was well distributed this year between the various sports which included tennis, volleyball, basketball, baseball, track, and hiking.

As a reward of good sportsmanship and a keen interest in athletics, the club presents numerals and letters each year. The point system is as follows: Intramural games, 100 points each; hiking, 1 point per mile; tennis, 10 points, each match; track, 100 points a season; class team (first), 100 points; class team (second), 50 points. Five hundred points entitles a member to a numeral; one thousand points gives her a letter.

The letter girls this year are Geraldine Bennett, Gladys Gottfried, Alice Jacobs, Edna Loescher, Maxine Mason, Katherine Renner, Rhea Rohn, Ruth Schwarzkopf, Katherine Stout, and Josephine Smith.

Girls' Intramural and Class Sports

THERE are five girls' sports at Central: tennis, volleyball, basketball, baseball, and track. Both intramural and class teams indulge in the first four of these while only intramural teams compete in tennis.

Intramural games are to train the girls who have had no previous training: the class teams are participated in by those who have had experience in playing the various games.

More interest was shown in the class games than in the intramurals because those games were faster and more exciting. The winter sport, basketball, was decidedly the most favored of the girls' sports. Class rivalry was at its best. This year the juniors won the class tournament and the Indians, the intramural tournament.

Track, one of our spring sports, did not have any intramural meets, but instead, one big class meet.

MAJOR ACTIVITIES

The Student Council

THE student council of Central, which originated in 1927, is a body organized for the purpose of student responsibility and governmental control. This organization has ever been a success due to the hearty co-operation between the faculty and the students. The council began its work early this year and accomplished many important things, only a few of which can be given here.

Honor Study Halls

The council representative selects those whom he believes can assume the responsibility of an honor study hall. After a certain length of time has elapsed, new students are substituted for those not meeting the requirements. The attendance is taken by upper classmen, and a member of the council is usually in the study hall to maintain order.

Student Traffic Police

The student traffic police system established and sponsored by the council is an aid to the city police in making the street crossings safe around Central. It has been met with approval and shows splendid possibilities.

Follies

The Follies put on each year to provide funds for the activities sponsored by the council, is an affair looked forward to by the students of Central. Both the faculty and the students take part in it. A prize is a recompense for their efforts.

Freshman Handbooks

One of the latest features adopted by the council is the freshman handbook. It is a small booklet containing the rules and regulations of the activities, government, and general knowledge needed by a freshman.

Annual

THE Annual Mirror has always been the outcome of hours of thought and actual labor. This year's book has been no exception and the entire staff has shown unusual co-operation.

Staff meetings were held at intervals to keep members acquainted with the progress of the work and to keep a record of points earned toward Quill and Scroll membership.

A new assignment board in the Annual Office simplified the work of the editors. Several pieces of furniture also added to the efficiency of the staff and and appearance of the office.

The theme of the Annual was embodied in the art in such a way as to give the art and literature unity. On the whole, the staff endeavored to include in the book everything which could keep alive memories of high school life, especially friendships and traditions of our Alma Mater.

Through the larger number of subscriptions and the splendid co-operation of students and faculty, the staff felt that they came very near the high standard which was set for the Annual this year. The advice and encouragement offered by the faculty advisors, Mr. H. C. Heffner and Miss Gladys Riggs, was invaluable and highly appreciated by the staff members.

The Mirror

THE Mirror has completed a very satisfactory year. An improved system of checking authenticity and grammatical correctness was inaugurated under a new faculty literary supervisor, Miss Laura Jamison. The journalism class was made a more active part of the Mirror, thereby training more students for positions on future Mirror staffs.

Staff members were chosen upon merit of work accomplished, and politics was kept out of the paper. Staff positions were revised to throw responsibility upon a greater number of students. On the whole, the year's work was the result of the efforts of a group of able and conscientious individuals rather than a single endeavor.

Since the Mirror had to be supported entirely by advertising, it became necessary for the business staff to work doubly hard in ordor to secure sufficient funds. Much credit is due Mr. H. G. Heffner, faculty business manager. for his apt handling of the business and financial problems of the Mirror.

In accordance with a national post office law, it became necessary to change the name from "The Weekly Mirror," and, to decide upon definite dates for the issuing of papers. The name became "The Mirror," and issues appeared on the first and third Fridays of each month.

Quill and Scroll

THE deepest desire of every member of the two Mirror staffs is membership in the Quill and Scroll society. This organization, a chapter of the national honorary society of high school journalism, was granted a charter at Central on October 15, 1926. It aims to encourage higher standards of high school journalism.

The requirements, which are quite rigid, limit the membership to students doing outstanding work on either of the Mirror staffs. Candidates must rank in the upper third of their class and must have earned at least fifteen hundred points by a staff rating-system. Each one must be recommended by the faculty advisor of the publication upon which he has worked; also, records must be sanctioned by the national committee of the Quill and Scroll society. Initiations are held once or twice a year and gold pins are presented as emblems of the society.

Little action can be taken by the chapter due to the fact that few juniors attain the honor and that senior members are not initiated until late in the spring; however, chapter members enter the national contests in "ad" and feature writing each year. Last year, first prize in the national feature-story contest came to Gibson Dildine, editor-in-chief of the Weekly Mirror.

DRAMATICS

Troubadours

THE Troubadourian Dramatic Society, which was organized in 1916, holds a prominent position in Central. The success of the club is due largely to the efforts of Mrs. Jessie Rhonemus, supervisor.

At the weekly meetings, one-act plays, and readings were presented. The program committee consisting of Alice Hilty, chairman, Maxine Marvin, Jeanne Welty, Gordon Shaw, Mary Louise Bradley, and William Haneke selected the plays and had charge of the meetings.

In mass meeting a one act play, "Owin to Maggie" was presented and was very much enjoyed by the students.

Each year the annual Troubadourian play is eagerly awaited by members of the club and the students at Central. This year's production "Betty's Last Bet," proved a huge success.

Masqueraders

THE Masqueraders' Club was organized in 1924 in order to further interest in dramatics. This year's meetings were planned by the program committee which consisted of Betty Jane Brown, Mary Emma Hadsell, and James Mitchell.

Due to the fact that there was a larger number of girls than boys, one-act plays were presented by the boys one week and by the girls for the two succeeding weeks.

"The Whole Truth," a comedy, was presented by the club in mass meeting.

This year the club tried a new plan for its annual production and instead of the customary three-act play, three short plays were presented. These plays "The Telegram," "Will-O-The-Wisp," and "Flower of Yedoe" were very entertaining and well presented.

Miss Stuart did much to make the club a success and to promote dramatics at Central.

MUSIC

The Orchestra

CENTRAL has had an orchestra since 1910, but not until the year 1926, when the organization was placed on school time did it begin to assume its present proportion. This year its programs were enjoyed in connection with many extra-curricular activities.

A member, Elizabeth Baxter, was elected to the National High School Orchestra and Band camp at Interlocken, Michigan.

The Band

THE band is one of the outstanding music organizations of the school. Although it was not organized until 1922, under the leadership of Mr. DuPere, it has made rapid progress.

Band practice is held twice a week. This year the band was organized under a completely new system, all practicing being done during school periods. Under this method more was accomplished than in previous years.

The band gave concerts, which proved very popular, at Lakeview, Van Wert, Columbus, and Bellefontaine. The ability of the solists was highly praised. The four leading soloists were: Harry Weaver, French horn; Jack Bigelow, trombone; Robert Mack, trumpet; and Leonard Huston, clarinet.

Every Centralite is proud of this organization because of the excellent spirit it showed. It put pep into our football and basketball games. Especially were we proud of it on Thanksgiving Day as it marched across the field displaying the good old red and green and playing our battle song.

The Boys' Glee Club

THROUGH the fifteen years since the Boys' Glee Club was founded, it has advanced until it is one of the most important activities of Central High School. A great deal of this is due to its fine director, Mr. C. J. Broadhead.

Like the Girls' Glee Club, it makes up an important unit of the chorus and meets two or more times a week on school time.

Some of the boys from the club helped to make the annual concert a success. Along with the Girls' Glee Club, the club made several appearances in assembly meetings, churches, and schools. The boys also had a part in the singing at the Northwestern Ohio Teachers' Association at Toledo. The "Scrap Iron Quartet" won first place in the Northwestern Ohio Eisteddfod held at Ada.

The biggest event of the year in which the boys participated was the Eisteddfod at Kenton, April 25. With such a record as this, Central can look for great things from her Boys' Glee Club in the future.

Girls' Glee Club

THE Girls' Glee Club was founded in 1914 under the direction of Miss Lewis, in order to promote appreciation of music among the girls at Central. It has been recognized at the beginning of each school year since and has worked in conjunction with other musical organizations of the school.

During the current year, a number of its members participated in the High School Eisteddfod at Kenton; also, a group from the club sang at the Northwestern Ohio Teachers' Association at Toledo. The Baccalaureate Services closed the activities of the club for the year.

Mr. C. J. Broadhead, the leader of the club, has made it an outstanding musical institution in the school, of recognized merit.

Debate Music

DEBATE Music is a contest which is held once a year in connection with the triangular debate. The triangular debate this year was held at Central and Findlay. The schools participating were Sidney, Findlay, and Central. The program was as follows: The girls' trio consisting of Marvel Baggs, Dorothy Day, and Maxine Moore; the male quartet consisting of Richard Whittington, Gordon Shaw, Robert Holms, and Troy Beldon; a piano soloist, Helen Fogelgrin. The contestants at home were Laura Louise Walters, Harriet Lewis, and Mary Barrington, in the girls' trio; Mary Emma Hadsell, Marcella Welty, and Murlin Stockton in the mixed trio; Velma Bruscotter, as the piano soloist; Helen Fisher was the accompanist for the two home trios. The honors were divided equally. Central won half and lost half of the things she entered. There were fewer dual debates, where music was made a part of the contest, held this year than any other year preceeding.

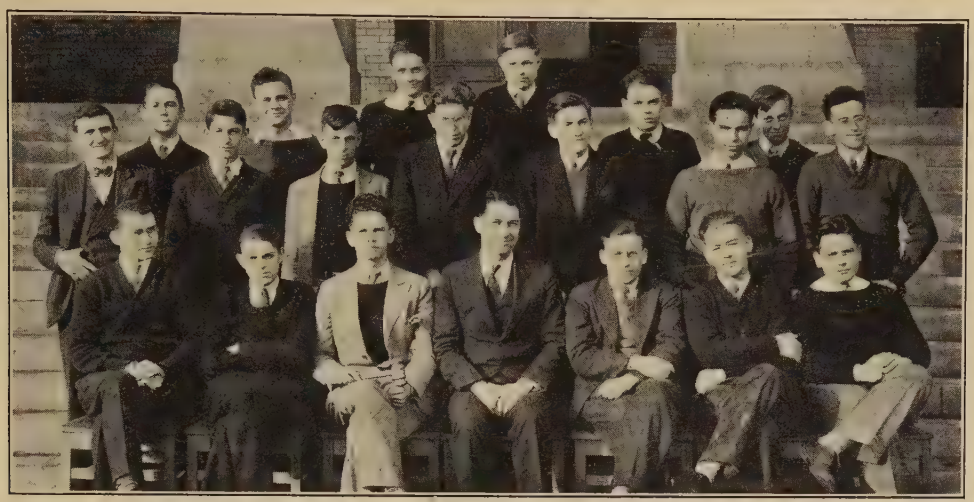
The last debates were to have been held with Kenton and Huntsville, but Kenton forfeited their debate with the negative team, while Huntsville had withdrawn from the league early in the season.

In November the debate season began with a series of elimination tryouts in which many contestants took part. As a result, two teams were chosen to lead Central through a year of activities in debate. Great interest was shown during the year, the school supporting its teams enthusiastically.

Much credit should be given the coaches: Mrs. Gwen Pence, Miss Grace Fishbaugh, Miss Gayle Howey, Mr. Stanley Boylan, and Mr. Allen Reed for their efforts toward making the season a success.



The Senate

THE Senate is the oldest and most dignified parliamentary body of Central High School. It first came into existence in 1916 as the "Wrangler's Club," but later the name was changed to that of "Central Senate."

The purpose of the club is to further debating and public speaking and to establish a better school spirit.

One of the most interesting events of the year was the annual House-Senate debate in which the members of both the House and Senate did their best to humble the other. Another important affair was the Senate banquet which was held at the Argonne Hotel in May. The Senate also had charge of a meeting in the auditorium at which three of the members each presented one of the prize winning orations for the last three years of the national oratorical contest. Mr. Boylan, the head of the history department, has had charge of the club this year and has done splendid work.

House of Representatives

THE purpose of the House of Representatives is to study parliamentary procedure and to further debating among the students of Central High School. It was established in 1921 under the direction of Mrs. Pence and since that time the membership has steadily increased each year and the club has become more prominent.

At the regular meetings the members have debated many interesting subjects among which are the talkies, the Jones bill, the Shepard bill, chain stores, women in industry, and many other interesting current topics. Through these debates, the students learn much concerning government and the principles of debate. The club also had charge of an assembly program during the year at which time the members gave the student body an idea of their work for the year. The annual Senate-House debate was an outstanding event of the year.

The supervisors of the club are Miss Grace Fishbaugh of Senior High and Miss Georgia Swickard of Junior High. They have worked diligently for the success of the club and are fully appreciated by the members.

MINOR
ACTIVITIES

Commercial Club

THE purpose of the Commercial Club is to make students better acquainted with the achievements, progress, and understanding of the present business world, and further, to emphasize the importance and value of a vocational training in high school. The club has been open for membership to any commercial student at Central.

The supervisors, teachers in the Commercial department, are doing much to make the organization worthwhile. The programs, arranged by a special committee, included several talks by prominent business men. Also the club has charge of the sectional shorthand and type-writing contests which are held every year.

The Commercial Club enjoyed its annual party March 21st, at which a lively program was presented, the feature of which was a one-act play, "Life in 2130." The committee in charge of the play and program was composed of Sharon Bressler, Don Bowlus, Don Smith, and Delight Myers.

Art Club

"ART is truth and truth is beauty and beauty relates itself to the highest ideals of living." Realizing this, the Art Club is trying to live up to some fine ideals set by Miss Kelly when the club was organized in 1919.

The club, under the supervision of Mrs. Burrell, conducted one of the most interesting mass meetings of the year. It was in illustrated lecture on costumes from the fourteenth century to the present day. The slides were made entirely by art students.

Another accomplishment of the club which was of educational value was the exhibit of one hundred and fifty colored prints of great masters. This exhibit was followed by a successful presentation of living pictures impersonated by pupils.

Greater interest has been manifested, also, in that students' work has entered the National Scholastic and Soap Sculpture competitions open to high school students.

At the meetings, held every two weeks, work was done in oil painting, water coloring, charcoal sketching, costume designing, or any phase of art in which a pupil was interested. Time was also given to the study of great artists and their pictures, and further, current art topics were discussed. We see a great future for this club at Central.

The Pre-College Club

THE Pre-College Club, sponsored by Mr. Waugh, is a new club at Central. Its purpose is to give the students a better knowledge of the various colleges in the United States and a better understanding of college life in general. In order to do this, college catalogues are studied, and by this and other methods, the students obtain accurate, up-to-date information concerning the college in which he is interested.

The programs are varied. At some meetings book reviews are given, followed by discussion; at other meetings, outside speakers give helpful talks and suggestions. Although not old enough to be a well-known club, we hope it will come to prominence in future years, for college is a subject in which practically every pupil is interested.

Camera Club

THE Camera Club was organized under Mr. Cahill in 1927 for the purpose of studying various phases of photography. During the past year, programs were given over to discussions or lectures on the science of photography. At the meetings, the members put their flnowledge into practice. Various trips were taken for the purpose of taking pictures; also, invaluable information was received through visits to the Berg Camera Shop and the Adon Studio.

Mr. E. L. Huber led the club through a successful year.

Aviation Club

THE Aviation Club was organized at the first of the year under the direction of Mr. Stoner for the purpose of studying the fundamentals of flying. Edwin Moyer was elected president and instructor with Fred Scheel and Fred Patton as assistants.

During the year the club has studied flying, motors, planes, navigation, and metrology. Rollie Thompson, Lima's pioneer pilot, visited the club and spoke on the general characteristics of aviation. The club is planning on chartering a plane for passenger hops in the near future.

Allen County Wheelmen

WITH the establishing of the Allen County Wheelmen's Association in 1925, a club for the promotion of bicycle riding and racing was organized. Its members are mostly boys of high school age who have adopted the motto "Ride a Bike."

Weekly meetings are held in the Y. M. C. A. where plans are made for the activities in which the club members participate. Addresses by prominent men are also given at these meetings.

The Lima organization participates in the Ohio State Championship Races which are held annually, and this year the Senior State Championship was won by Leroy Hedges, a member of the local organization.

One week in the year is annually set aside as "Bike Week," during which time special races and parades are held.

In the summer many trips are taken throughout Ohio and the neighboring states.

During the past few years several clubs outside of Lima have been organized through the influence of the local organization. Among these, the club in Lima, Peru, is one of the most flourishing.

The boys of the Bicycle Club are also aided in realizing the value of clean sportsmanship. Mr. R. S. Armstrong was the supervisor of the club during the past year.

Senior Hi-Y Club

THE Hi-Y Club since its beginning in 1918 has had as its members, boys from the junior and senior classes in high school, whose purpose is "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

Weekly meetings were held at the Y. M. C. A. where many discussions on the problems of the American youth of today took place. Addresses were given by several out-of-town speakers. Also, round table discussions were held from which helpful criticisms and suggestions were received.

The annual Four C's week was sponsored successfully at Central with the co-operation of the Blue Triangle Club members. Forum meetings were also held in conjunction by these two clubs.

In the state Hi-Y convention held in Findlay, Ohio, in November, the Central organization was very well represented.

Much of the credit for the success of this year's club goes to Mr. R. E. Overmire, Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who, acting as advisor to the boys, did very effective work.

Junior Hi-Y Club

THE Junior Hi-Y club, which was organized in 1923, is a club composed of boys from the freshman and sophomore classes of high school who have as their aim to create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character.

By participating in the activities of the club, the members receive a training for the Senior Hi-Y, and thus are able to understand the purpose and standards of the senior club more readily when they come into it.

Meetings were held every Tuesday in the Y. M. C. A. Very interesting addresses were given, and questions in which the modern American youth is interested were discussed. Further, in short round table discussions, many helpful suggestions were received. Every fourth meeting was devoted to social activities. During the winter months, swimming and other indoor sports were enjoyed at the "Y," while in the warmer seasons, meetings were given mainly to outdoor sports.

In the joint forum meetings held by the Blue Triangle and Hi-Y clubs, the junior organization co-operated with the Senior Hi-Y.

Mr. S. W. Steiner, the advisor, has put forth a great amount of effort towards the development of this year's club.

Blue Triangle Club

THE Blue Triangle Club was organized as a branch of the national Girl Reserves which is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., to create leadership and and to interest the girls in community life.

Every girl who wishes to be a Girl Reserve accepts courtesy, fair play, and willingness to help as a part of her standards of every day living. Furthermore, she is expected to face life squarely and to find and give the best. Whenever the members of the club decide that a girl lives up to these ideals, she is awarded a ring as an emblem of her attainment.

During this year, the club gave a Faculty Tea, a Little Sister Party, a Mother-Father-Daughter Banquet, and a Hallowe'en Party with the South Blue Triangle, also the members co-operated with the Hi-Y in sponsoring a Four C's campaign, a Forum and a Hard Luck Party. At the annual mid-winter conference, which was held in Toledo this year, many members represented the club. The Annual Senior Farewell, given by the juniors, concluded the activities of the club. At this time, the new officers were installed, and the girls who were given rings were initiated into the Inner Circle.

Girls' Citizenship Club

THE Girls' Citizenship Club was organized only last year by Miss Mary Lee Deputy, but in the two short years of its existence, the girls have showed a decided interest in and a desire for the continuance of the club.

The club considers the many difficulties that arise in the life of a high school girl in school, in society, in her family, and in connection with her personal friends. In helping to solve these problems, many perplexing questions have been discussed.

This year, however, the club has paid particular attention to the reasons for fear and how to overcome it. "Many of our failures to succeed are said to be due almost entirely to fear. Fear of competition, fear of personal inefficiency, fear of risking ventures, fear of criticism, and the like enter into our success or failure."

The purposes of the club are lofty, and its actual accomplishments are of much value.

Girls' Welfare

THE Girls' Welfare Club was organized in 1913 under the direction of Miss Drusilla Reilly. She has continued to lead the club through the subsequent years, and throughout the time, has held the club to its original high ideal.

The activities of the club may be expressed in its motto "Service." At various holidays, baskets have been distributed among the poor people of Lima. At other times sick people have been visited and milk has been given to under nourished children whose parents were unable to buy milk for them.

Senior Scholarship Tests

THE idea of the General Scholarship Contest for high school seniors is not a new one. The director of the contest has had five year's experience in developing and carrying on the contest in the state of Kansas.

The contest was held at Central on April 19 from eight until twelve o'clock. The tests were objective and covered the essentials of the high school course of study. The first of the five tests given was Mathematics, of which one-third was devoted to Arithmetic, one-third to Algebra, and one-third to Plane Geometry.

In English, one-half of the test consisted of the fundamentals, while the rest consisted of American and English Literature. In History, one half was devoted to the United States History, one-fourth to World History, and one-fourth to Ohio History. In Science, the subjects of Physics, Chemistry, General Science, and Biology covered the test, while the Social Science, two-thirds was devoted to The World Today, and the rest consisted of Social Civics, Social Problems, and Problems of Democracy.

Not more than ten seniors may represent a school. Behavior, attitude, ideas, ideals, and future promise were to be considered by the local school authorities in choosing the representative.

The ten seniors representing Central were Naomi Geib ,Mona Vittur, Alice Hilty, Althea DeKalb, Lillian Kuhlman, James Barnhardt, Wayne Current, Calvin Koch, Fred Horn, and Jack Gushman. The four alternates who were to take the test in the absence of any of the first ten were Claude Harris, Kenneth Hutchinson, Marceil Armstrong, and Rebecca Jane Taylor.

How Civilized Are We?

The extent to which the world has changed the laborer who uses his body into the workman who uses his head is the index to Civilization"—so says Edward Everett Hale.

Electricity is gradually substituting its untiring energy for muscular effort in every branch of American endeavor, it needs only be directed by human intelligence.

Its use is, therefore, a significant "Index of Civilization."
